

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

KEVIN LYNN FERNANDEZ, )
Plaintiff, ) 3:06-cv-0628-LRH-WGC
v. )
STATE OF NEVADA, et al., ) ORDER Defendants. )

Before the court is defendant the State of Nevada's motion to dismiss this action with prejudice pursuant to an enforced settlement agreement. Doc. #661.<sup>1</sup>

In 1985, Fernandez was convicted of a single count of sexual assault. He was released on parole in 1992. In 1997, while Fernandez was on parole, the Nevada State Legislature enacted NRS § 213.1214 which eliminates the possibility of parole for a prisoner who is classified as having a high risk to re-offend if the prisoner committed a crime enumerated in the statute.<sup>2</sup>

Fernandez violated his parole in 2003. In 2006, he went before a psychological review panel to determine whether he presented a high risk to re-offend. The panel labeled Fernandez as an inmate with a high risk to re-offend pursuant to NRS § 213.1214 which consequently precluded

1 him from parole eligibility in 2008.

2 Fernandez subsequently filed a prisoner civil rights complaint against defendants alleging
3 several causes of action including a procedural Due Process claim for his classification as an
4 inmate possessing a high-risk to re-offend. Doc. #5. During the pendency of his action the parties
5 reached a settlement agreement in which plaintiff Fernandez agreed to stipulate to dismiss this
6 action and the State of Nevada agreed to provide Fernandez with a hearing before the Psychological
7 Review Panel. However, after reaching a settlement, Fernandez refused to stipulate to dismissing 8 this action.

9 Subsequently, the State of Nevada filed a motion to enforce settlement agreement.
10 Doc. #577. The Magistrate Judge who oversaw the settlement negotiations and agreement issued a 11 report and recommendation granting the motion. Doc. #610. On August 13, 2012, the court adopted
12 the report and recommendation enforcing the settlement agreement. Doc. #660. Thereafter, the 13 State of Nevada filed the present motion to dismiss this action with prejudice pursuant to the 14 court's order enforcing the settlement agreement and Fernandez' continued refusal to stipulate to 15 dismissal. Doc. #661.

16 The court has reviewed the documents and pleadings on file in this matter and finds that 17 dismissal of this action is warranted in light of the settlement agreement between the parties and the 18 court's order enforcing the settlement agreement. In his opposition, Fernandez opposes the motion 19 on the grounds that he has initiated an interlocutory appeal of the court's order enforcing the 20 settlement agreement. Doc. #674. However, Fernandez' interlocutory appeal is improper until a
21 final order of judgment is issued in this matter. Therefore, the court finds that the appropriate action
22 in this matter is to grant the motion to dismiss and dismiss this action to allow Fernandez' appeal to 23 proceed without further interruption. Accordingly, the court shall grant the State of Nevada's 24 motion.
